

Interactive TV Perspectives 2010

Inaugurated in 2006, the fifth edition of the European Conference for Interactive Television was held at France TV on 28th June. The conference is an annual professional event which offers a unique panorama of interactive TV in Europe including major operations reviews, best practice case studies, and new trends analysis.

Video

Programme

An Event supported by

and

and

and

in partnership with